

Software Update Procedure

This document describes the software installation process and it should take approximately 10 minutes of total time to complete.

Requirements

- Latest CG-200 installation file. This can be obtained from your local Datavideo dealer or office or download from the official website.

Install CG-200 Software

CG-200_Install

Double click the CG-200 icon to install the program on the PC.

CG-200

After the software is successfully installed, you will see the program shortcut on the desktop. Double click it to launch the program.